Accessibility Statement

Our commitment to making Under The Stripes content usable by as many people as possible.

REAL OFFICIALS. REAL CONVERSATIONS. REAL IMPACT.

IMPORTANT DRAFT NOTICE: This document is a practical starting draft for Under The Stripes Network, LLC and is not legal advice. A licensed attorney should review it before publication, especially after the site adds payments, memberships, advertising, user accounts, or services directed to children.

Our Commitment

Under The Stripes Network, LLC is committed to improving access to its website, podcast information, resources, and digital content for people with disabilities.

Our Accessibility Goals

- Use clear headings, readable contrast, descriptive links, and logical page structure.
- Add alternative text to meaningful images and avoid putting essential information only inside graphics.
- Provide captions for prerecorded video and transcripts or useful show notes when reasonably available.
- Make forms keyboard-friendly, clearly labeled, and understandable when an error occurs.
- Publish documents with selectable text, meaningful reading order, and adequate font size whenever practical.
- Review new pages and important updates for common accessibility barriers.

Known Limitations

Some older graphics, third-party embeds, social-media content, video players, downloadable files, or external registration tools may not yet provide the same level of accessibility. We are working to improve materials as the Network grows.

Need Assistance?

If you cannot access content or complete a website task, contact us through www.underthestripes.com. Please identify the page or resource, describe the barrier, and tell us the format or assistance that would help. We will make a reasonable effort to provide the information another way.

Ongoing Improvement

Accessibility is an ongoing responsibility. This statement should be reviewed when the website platform, navigation, forms, media players, or major content areas change.
