

WEBSITE LEGAL DOCUMENT

Copyright & Permissions Policy

How visitors may share, quote, reproduce, or request use of Network materials.

REAL OFFICIALS. REAL CONVERSATIONS. REAL IMPACT.

IMPORTANT DRAFT NOTICE: This document is a practical starting draft for Under The Stripes Network, LLC and is not legal advice. A licensed attorney should review it before publication, especially after the site adds payments, memberships, advertising, user accounts, or services directed to children.

Ownership

Unless otherwise credited, original website text, downloadable guides, graphics, photographs, audio, video, branding, and promotional materials are owned by Under The Stripes Network, LLC and protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

What You May Do Without Written Permission

- Share a direct link to a public page or public download.
- Download a free resource for your own personal, noncommercial education.
- Quote a brief excerpt for commentary, review, or news reporting when you clearly credit Under The Stripes Network and link to the original page, subject to applicable law.

What Requires Written Permission

- Reposting a complete article, guide, PDF, transcript, video, audio segment, or graphic.
- Removing or covering logos, credits, watermarks, or copyright notices.
- Editing, translating, adapting, bundling, selling, licensing, or distributing Network content.
- Using content in paid training, commercial presentations, merchandise, advertising, or sponsorship.
- Using the Under The Stripes name or logos in a way that implies endorsement or partnership.

Association and Classroom Use

Officials associations, schools, leagues, camps, and mentors may request permission to distribute selected resources for noncommercial education. The request should identify the material, audience, distribution method, number of recipients, whether a fee is charged, and desired dates.

Third-Party Material

Some pages may contain third-party names, marks, quotations, photographs, clips, rules references, or links. Those materials remain subject to the rights and policies of their owners.

Permission Requests

Submit requests through the Contact or Partner With Us page at www.underthestripes.com. Permission is not granted until confirmed in writing. Include the exact item, proposed use, platform, audience, duration, territory, and whether the use is commercial.

Reporting Infringement

To report suspected infringement involving Network content, provide the location of the original material, the location of the unauthorized use, your contact information, and a short explanation through the website Contact page.